
Salvia clevelandii 'Winnifred Gilman'

Description: Strongly aromatic, evergreen, rounded shrub. Violet-blue flowers produced in whorls, often several whorls to each stem. Extremely unusual.

Hardiness: Extremely unusual. Best grown in a pot although hardy to approx -6°C in a sunny position on well-drained soil.

Height: 90cm