
Salvia greggii CD&R 1148

Description: Shrubby perennial. Orange-red flowers with purple tipped calyces. Collected in Mexico by James Compton, John D'Arcy and Martin Rix. Long flowering season; May to November.

Hardiness: Very drought tolerant. Hardy in most areas if given full sun and good drainage.

Height: 75cm