
Salvia atrocyanea

Description: Spectacular tuberous perennial native to Bolivia. Long, drooping inflorescences of deep blue flowers with large green calyces and conspicuous, persistent, blue-tinged bracts. A real eye-catcher for the mid-back border.

Hardiness: Has proved to be extremely hardy in our well-drained soil

Height: 1.5m