
Salvia concolor

Description: Sturdy, upright, tuberous perennial from Bolivia/Peru. Produces long inflorescences of striking deep blue flowers from July well into November. Full sun or partial shade. Good for the back of the border.

Hardiness: Very hardy on well-drained soil and has flowered reliably here despite the lack of sun in 2012

Height: 2.5m