
Salvia microphylla 'Cerro Potosí'

Description: Shrubby perennial with large, glowing magenta-pink flowers held well above the leaves. An excellent long-flowering form. Bushy and very tough. Recommended for exposed sites. If you only have room for one Salvia, then grow this one.

Hardiness: Very drought tolerant. Hardy in most areas if given full sun and good drainage

Height: 80cm