

---

Salvia microphylla 'Wild Watermelon'

---

Description: Shrubby perennial producing large magenta-pink flowers with a small white throat and dark calyces. Collected in Mexico from the same mountain as S.m. 'Cerro Potosí'. Flowers from May to November and very drought tolerant

Hardiness: Hardy in most areas if given full sun and good drainage.

Height: 75cm